

Military Toronto – World War II – Little Norway

In 1940 Norway was invaded by Germany. The Norwegian pilots who escaped ultimately ended up in a training camp established for the Royal Norwegian Air Force at the Toronto Island Airport. Below are an unused real photo postcard of a few of the pilots and an envelope with one of the circular date stamps created for the Little Norway base.

